The colors black, red, white, and blue are claimed as a feature of the mark.

The mark consists of the words "VETERANS ACTION GROUP" in white stylized font in a blue rectangular banner ribbon that curves slightly downwards from left to right. A stylized white head of an eagle outlined in blue looking to the left appears on the left side above the letters "VETERANS A". The black full-body silhouette of a male in a military uniform and a black full-body silhouette of a female in a military uniform dress stand with their right arms in a salute and located in the neck of the eagle head. The right side of the eagle head transitions into an artistic representation of the flag of the United States. The right blue line that forms the right side of the eagle head contains seven white stars followed by a partial blue rectangle with twenty-one white stars. Five red bars start in the middle above the "T" in "ACTION" with the bottom bar aligning with the bottom of the partial blue rectangle. The five red bars break twice at a right-downwards slant to create three sets of five red bars as a stylized artistic representation of the flag blowing in the wind. A longer 6th red bar is broken once and separates the eagle head from the blue ribbon after the break it curves upward slightly towards the eagle's beak; all represented on a white background.

No claim is made to the exclusive right to use the following apart from the mark as shown: "VETERANS", "ACTION", AND "GROUP"
